

STORIES AROUND the ADVENT WREATH

VIRTUAL Weekend Retreat (via ZOOM)
December 4-6, 2020
Cost: $135.00

We savor Advent and Christmas. We know the seasonal Scripture stories so well. But how was it for those who lived those stories, whose days and decisions became our Scriptures? Do we realize truly that they were human like us? This Advent, let imagination enrich your prayer, discovering anew how the season's oh-so-familiar Scripture stories evoke and illuminate our own stories of hope and heartache, of expectancy and surprise, of reconciliation and faith. Mary, Joseph, the Baptist, the shepherds, the innkeeper, the magi—all have stories able to draw us into deeper reflection and insight.

facilitated by Joy Clough, RSM

SR. JOY CLOUGH is a writer and storyteller, the author of several books, and a professional communicator who has served both the Sisters of Mercy and the Archdiocese of Chicago. Her gospel-based stories have delighted listeners at retreat centers, parishes, retirement facilities, and academic settings. In addition to her storytelling ministry, Joy's retirement endeavors focus on activities and advocacy related to care of the Earth, immigration, and urban violence.
