

LIVING INTO THE PROMISES

September 19-20, 2020

facilitated by Shari Roeseler

NOTE: This retreat is currently scheduled to be held on campus. Should Mercy Center be unable to allow gatherings, the retreat will be offered through a virtual platform.

The Promises of AA are situated at the point where we are making our amends. We have begun to meet with, talk with, and/or write to those people who we harmed in some way while we were active in our addictions. Steps 8 and 9 are action steps that allow us to clean up the “wreckage of our past” and begin to lay the groundwork for new relationships and healed relationships.

These are not easy steps. Fear of humiliation and rejection and our egos can trip us up. We may want to jump headlong into our amends when we really need more counsel from our sponsors. Honesty, Open-mindedness and Willingness are the keys.

This retreat on the Promises is intended to allow you time to ponder each promise and ask yourself – have I realized this promise? If yes, how? If no, why not? It is an invitation to see what more will be revealed.....

COST: $125.00

Retreat begins at 9:30am on Saturday morning and ends at 3:00pm on Sunday.

Shari Roeseler has conducted workshops at Mercy Center Auburn focusing on spirituality and recovery. She has over 25 years of experience working in faith-based ministries including Mercy Housing CA and St. Anthony Foundation in San Francisco. Shari completed the two-year Ignatian Spiritual Directors Program in May 2019. She has a Masters in Theological Studies with a focus on Christian Social Ethics and Healthcare Ethics from Santa Clara University-Jesuit School of Theology. She is a volunteer coordinator on the St. Francis Parish Faith Formation Team and she is a lecturer at the University of San Francisco.
