Listening to the Still Voice of God

A Look at the Many Ways God Speaks to Us and Our Call to Respond

Is your life in transition? Is there a decision you have to make at home or work and unsure which direction to follow? Perhaps you are trying to understand where God is in the middle of so much suffering and how you are called to respond. Join us as we explore the art of discernment and find ways to listen for the still voice of God above the noise of the day. You will find a safe place to reflect, pray, ask questions, and share. Whether you are standing at the crossroads stifling a loud cry from within or just starting to notice a faint whisper, come discern "where the good way lies" so you can "walk in it and find rest for your soul."

Christine Jurisich is a retreat facilitator, Associate of the Sisters of Mercy, and author of "Retreat, Reflect, Renew: A Sacred Journal for a More Peaceful You", and foundress of Retreat, Reflect, Renew, a retreat ministry offering day and online retreats. Christine has been in pastoral ministry locally and nationally, for the past ten years, holds a graduate certificate in Mercy Spirituality, and is in formation to be a spiritual director.
