Intensive Training for the Formation of
Spiritual Direction Supervisors

FACULTY MEMBERS

- ◇ Brother Don Bisson, FMS
- ◇ Janet Corso
- ◇ Colleen Gregg, MA
- ◇ Tom Morgan

This 6-day intensive provides practical and theoretical knowledge to be a spiritual direction supervisor, and serves to address the critical need for supervisors with ever-increasing numbers of spiritual directors.

Ultimately, this ministry will provide greater freedom for directors and better quality of direction for directees.

Listed are some of the elements provided by this training:

- Readings and bibliographies on various topics
- A Jungian-Christian framework on redeeming the shadow
- An emphasis on deepening self-knowledge and obstacles to our wholeness
- Distinguishing between supervision and necessary consultation
- Presentations by experts in the field of spiritual direction and supervision
- Providing differing models of spiritual direction supervision both personal and group experiences
- Bringing to the intensive a number of supervision sessions to be held on campus as part of the practicum
- Each participant will be observed by a faculty member in triads during the week
- The beauty of Mercy Center will provide a contemplative atmosphere for holy inner work
- Private rooms, healthy California cuisine and a beautiful chapel provide a perfect setting for peace and reflection

If you are a trained spiritual director and feel drawn to this ministry please follow the instructions for further information and application process.

In order to guarantee the personal time for each intern, the number of spaces are limited.

Begins Sunday, April 28th with Dinner at 5:15pm; ends with lunch on May 3rd

⇒ Application Fee: $25

⇒ Tuition Cost: $2100
