

One Among You is the Messiah

Living in Hope in times of Upheaval, Uncertainty, and Conflict

November 11-13, 2022
facilitated by Thomas P. Bonacci, C.P.

The Retreat is open to anyone interested in the emerging new world of interspiritual practice, understanding, and living. The Beloved Story "One Among You is the Messiah" will offer the foundations for our considerations and reflections. The Retreat is based on the story "The Rabbi's Gift" by Francis Dorff, O. Praem. Our spiritual practice is usually established on the belief our World can become a better place. We live in hope with a profound expectation the best is yet to come. Yet, our spirits are dampened and our hearts broken when the ambiguity of life seems marked by violence, setbacks, and disappointments. Our Retreat will explore the spirituality of hope inviting participants to discover the hope within themselves.

Begins Friday, November 11th with registration from 3:00 to 6:00pm; dinner at 6:00pm; ends on Sunday, November 13th after noon lunch.
