

Advent Day of Prayer & Reflection

VIRTUAL (via zoom)

Saturday, December 4, 2021

9:30 to 3:30pm PST † $35

Imagine Their Advent!

facilitated by Joy Clough, RSM

Whose Advent? The one first experienced by Mary of Nazareth, her cousin Elizabeth, Mary's husband-to-be Joseph, and Elizabeth's son John. Every year, these are our companions on our Advent journey. We welcome them; we know their stories. But wait! Do we really grasp what it was like for each of them as the birth of the child drew near? Using imagination rooted in Scripture, we'll seek a deeper appreciation of those who experienced the first Advent, those whose stories might well enrich our own waiting and readiness for Jesus' birth.

Sr. Joy Clough is a writer and storyteller, the author of several books, and a professional communicator who has served both the Sisters of Mercy and the Archdiocese of Chicago. Her gospel-based stories have delighted listeners at retreat centers, parishes, retirement facilities, and academic settings.
