LOVE REIMAGINED

Life as we knew it came apart in 2020. In the darkest of times, our vulnerability calls us to stay with our experience and embrace that which makes us tremble. Jesus lived a passionate expression of living and dying. Lament was at the very heart of his expression of love.

God imagined and reimagined breaking forth into the world. Together, in a journey with our Christian faith and the mystics who see through the veil of time, we too, must let ourselves unravel, feel the breaking down of everything, stay present, lament, and then imagine anew.

VERONICA GALAS is a Public Health Nurse Manager, Spiritual Director and Episcopal Deacon. Growing up Roman Catholic in a post-Vatican II world, attending a Jesuit college and sharing in community life with the Sisters of Mercy as a young adult shaped her faith towards social justice. In her role as Deacon, she preaches regularly and engages community organizing efforts in Northern Nevada.
