

CONSIDER THE WAY

A three-part Lenten Series

March 22, 29 and April 5, 2022 (via zoom)

7:00 to 8:30pm

facilitated by

Katherine Doyle,
RSM

This three-part series invites participants to accept the Lenten challenge to walk a path of openness of heart and mind. Recognizing that life is welcomed in the present moment, each new day presents an invitation to take delight in possibility, to experience the renewal of forgiveness and to celebrate the persons we are individually and collectively. It is an invitation to be reshaped by God.

BEGIN AGAIN

Everyone has had the experience of wishing they could have a second chance. This evening focuses on the gift of beginning again by letting go of past disappointments, broken resolutions or expectations.

AS IF FOR THE FIRST TIME

In our busyness and rush we sometimes don't really see the wonder before our eyes. This evening invites us to listen to the voice of the Spirit speaking to us through the unfolding of creation and persons.

TENDING THE SOUL'S GARDEN

Every gardener knows that gardens must be tended. Weeds must be removed to give flowers and plants room to grow. Water must flow gently to nourish the roots. So it is with our spirits. This evening will show us ways to prepare our hearts to encounter the holy, to bring our lives into wholeness and our relationships into union.
