The Oasis Days in the new year will be a sacred journeying with saints and mystics: known and lesser known, historical and modern-day.

These will be quiet days for contemplative reflection. The day will begin with an introduction to—and prayerful invitation with—the person/theme of the day, followed by time for solitude, journaling, other prayer options of preference. The day will close with prayer and shared insights from the journey.

For those who wish to enhance their time of quiet and solitude, participants are invited to arrange ahead of time for overnight stay.
